Processional Order: Please list on the bottom of the page how you would like the processional to take place.

Example:

- Officiant and groom enter from side door and wait at the altar.
- Each set of parents walk in together, or accompanied by usher/other family member.
- Each set of grandparents walk in together, or accompanied by usher/other family member.
- Maid of Honor and Best Man walk in together. (Women to the right of the altar, men on the left).
- Bridesmaids and groomsmen walk in together.
- The ring bearer walks alone, followed by the flower girl, or the children can walk together.
- The bride and her father proceed, with the bride on her father's right arm.

Typically the best man has the rings during the service and hands them to the Pastor when he asks for them.

If the bride has a bouquet, its typically handed to the Maid of Honor during the exchange of rings/ vows.
